About Hayman Lawyers

Legal solutions for your peace of mind

First and foremost, Hayman Lawyers is a legal solutions provider. Our professional training, independence and vast experience mean that we are able to assess risks and provide objective advice on almost any situation.

We will help you to steer a course through whatever risks confront you.

Whether you are trying to restructure your business or market your house, you will obtain peace of mind from our advice.

We are relationship-focused rather than transaction-based. This means that we do not put your file away after completing a transaction until the next time you call. Instead, we see each transaction as a development in our on-going relationship with you.

You will benefit from our innovative and practical solutions!

Our philosophy

Hayman Lawyers recognise that your life is not one-dimensional. You may be an employer, a taxpayer, a consumer and a parent. You may have a home, a business, a mortgage and investments. You could have a partner and children.

You need lawyers who can help you in all areas of your life. Hayman Lawyers takes pride in our ability to ensure you obtain the best outcome in all situations:

- Selling & purchasing businesses
- Buying & selling houses
- Privacy & information
- Insolvency & debt restructuring
- Wills and estates
- Family law
- Trusts
- Asset protection & risk management
- Business advice & business start-ups
- Employment
- Court & tribunal proceedings
- Franchising
- Leases & tenancies
- Complex documentation
- Business succession planning

You will find us accessible and pro-active. Your communications will be answered promptly.

Origin

Hayman Lawyers was born out of Luckie Hain Kennard & Sclater, a century-old legal practice, and incorporates the practice of Kevin Bell Law. The Principal is John Evans.

Why does a fencer feature in our logo?

A successful fencer is mentally and physically agile and able to attack and defend. Speed, strategy and timing are important, as are technical skills. We consider these ideals are relevant to us as your lawyers.
